

SPAIN MUST ANSWER

Secretary Gresham Has Cabled Formal Demands.

DUE EXPRESSIONS OF REGRET

And [a Prompt Disavowal For Firing on the Alliance Must Be Made at Once—The Spanish Minister at Washington Dismayed, but Says His Country Must Hear Both Sides of the Story.

MADRID, March 16.—The following cablegram has been received here:

"Taylor, Minister, Madrid—This department is informed that on the 8th inst. the United States mail steamship Alliance on her homeward voyage from Colon to New York, when six miles from the coast of Cuba, off Cape Maysi, was repeatedly fired upon by a Spanish gunboat with solid shot, which fortunately fell short. The windward passage where this occurred is the natural and usual highway for vessels plying between ports of the United States and the Caribbean sea. Through it several regular lines of American mail and commercial steamers pass weekly within sight of Cape Maysi. They are well known, and their voyage embraces a Cuban port of call. Forcible interference with them can not be claimed as a belligerent act, whether they pass within three miles of the Cuban coast or not, and can, under no circumstances, be tolerated when no state of war exists. The government will expect prompt disavowal of the unauthorized act and due expression of regret on the part of Spain, and it must insist that immediate and positive orders be given to Spanish naval commanders not to interfere with legitimate American commerce passing through that channel, and prohibiting all acts wantonly imperiling life and property lawfully under the flag of the United States. You will communicate to the minister for foreign affairs and urge importance of prompt and satisfactory response."

Murraga Dismayed.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—As soon as the text of Secretary Gresham's demand on Spain was received it was taken by a representative of the Associated Press to Senor Murraga, the Spanish minister.

"I am astonished," said he, "that this course has been taken when as yet only one side of the story has been told and any action must be based on the expert statement of Captain Crossman."

"Will Spain apologize?" Minister Murraga was asked.

"That remains to be seen after Spain's side of the story is learned," said he. "Certainly there will be no reply until all the facts are known, not alone from Captain Crossman, but from the commander of the Spanish gunboat alleged to have done the firing."

The minister was in doubt as to how soon these facts could be learned, in view of the inability thus far to communicate with the Spanish warship. When these facts are known, said the minister, Spain will be able to act intelligently on the whole case, and not on the partial case made out by Captain Crossman. Spain would undoubtedly rest upon the recognized principles of international law, that a country maintained her sovereignty over the waters within her jurisdictional limits. In this respect he regarded the terms of the demand surprising in asserting that interference with American ships can be claimed as a belligerent act, "whether they pass within three miles of the Cuban coast or not."

SENSITIVE FATHER.

After Giving His Daughter a Wrong Medicine He Hangs Himself.

OMAHA, March 16.—Crazed for fear that his daughter would die as a result of his carelessness, and that he would be arrested for her murder, Joseph Wachter, a day laborer, went out into his coalshed and hanged himself. His daughter had been ill for several days, and the attending physician left two medicines to be administered, one internally and the other externally. Wachter by mistake gave the sick girl the external remedy, and she took a large dose of it. She became very ill, but by calling the physician she was soon recovering. The act preyed on Wachter's mind, however, and he refused to believe she would recover. He went out to the coalshed, and taking a clothesline hanged himself.

THE NEW LIBERTY BELL.

Its Journey Will Now Extend to the Great Northwest.

CHICAGO, March 16.—A contract was made Friday for the construction of a special car, upon which the Columbian Liberty bell and Peace bell will resume its journey around the country in about six weeks. All through the winter, by permission of the city council, the bell has stood on the lake front covered with canvas and protected from the elements by a tent. The truck upon which it stands is now being decorated with the coats-of-arms of the states in inland woods. Among the places to which the bell will be taken during the summer are Springfield, Ill., Madison, Wis., Bismarck, S. D., Topeka, Kan., Des Moines, Ia., and Lincoln, Neb. No charge is to be made for viewing the notable memorial.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 16.—Advices received here from Moosh show that two Kurds, who were being pursued for having abducted an Armenian girl, were overtaken by their pursuers and killed.

MIDNIGHT ATTACK.

Army Officers Wreck Two Newspaper Offices—Rebel Band Dispersed.

MADRID, March 16.—Great excitement has been caused in this city by an attack that was made at midnight upon the offices of the Opportunist newspaper and El Globo, the organ of Senor Castelar. The attacking party consisted of 300 lieutenants in the army, and the offices were completely wrecked. The furniture was smashed into firewood. The employees of the newspaper strongly resisted the assailants, and in the melee the manager and a number of others were wounded. The rioting became so serious that General Bernudez Reina, the military governor of Madrid, was summoned, and through his efforts order was restored.

An official dispatch from Havana states that the government troops have dispersed the rebel band in the Sierra del Cobre. The rebels lost heavily. The troops lost one killed and two wounded.

Jap War Prizes.

YOKOHAMA, March 16.—Official administrative offices have been founded at Kaiping, Foo-Chow and Peitzwo.

Count Ito, president of the Japanese council of ministers, and Viscount Mutsu, the foreign minister, have gone to Shimonoseki to meet the Chinese peace envoys.

The prizes taken by the Japanese at Ying-Kao, the port of New-Chwang, include a gunboat, two steamers, 100 junks and large supplies of munitions.

Deceiving the Commission.

LONDON, March 16.—A dispatch to the Telegraph from Moosh, via Kars, declares that the villages in the Sassoun district are covered with snow to the depth of three feet. The Turks, in order to deceive the commission of inquiry, have compelled many refugees to return to the villages, where they are now dying from cold or starvation.

Russian Press Censorship.

LONDON, March 16.—A dispatch from Berlin to The Daily News says that advances from St. Petersburg are to the effect that the papers there are started by official notice that the government does not intend to change its censorship policy. Any journal attributing any such intention to the government will be punished.

HOMEWARD.

President Cleveland Will Arrive in Washington This Evening.

NORFOLK, March 16.—The lighthouse tender Violet came alongside the dock at the buoy yard in this port at about 1:30 o'clock. President Cleveland was looking in splendid health and told a reporter that he was feeling excellently. When asked about his trip the president replied:

"I have met with bad weather most of the time since leaving home, but the birds have been thick and I have not noticed the weather much. I have had good luck, as you see, mostly all Brent ducks, with a few geese."

Asked as to the fishing, he replied: "There were not many fish, but we got enough to satisfy us."

No accident nor unusual incident marred the pleasure of the trip. He was very anxious to hear of the state of ex-President Harrison's health, and expressed solicitude as to his present condition. The president said he was going to work refreshed and invigorated. Inspector Lambuston expects to put the president ashore in Washington this evening.

OUTRAGER SENTENCED.

Two Companies of Militia Protect Him During the Trial.

WINCHESTER, Va., March 16.—Thorton Parker, the negro who attempted to assault Mrs. Mary Melton, a lady living near Middletown, Va., on Tuesday, March 5, was tried yesterday before Judge Atkinson. A squad of the militia who arrived pursuant to Sheriff Gore's request, were stationed around the prisoner in the courtroom, and the others stood guard on the outside.

The trial lasted about five hours. The jury returned in 40 minutes with a verdict of guilty. Judge Atkinson at once sentenced Parker to be hung on Friday, April 19, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 3 p. m. Two companies of militia returned home on a special train over the Baltimore and Ohio. The excitement has subsided and no further trouble is anticipated.

Revolution in Gas.

CLEVELAND, March 16.—A sample of the illuminating gas recently discovered in New York, which can be delivered to consumers in cans, has been received and partially tested at the office of the Cleveland Gaslight company. Secretary Beardsley of the company said that the gas burned steadily and gave an excellent light. The material from which it is made is lime and coal dust, welded by electricity into a sort of dark brownish porous substance. The gas is generated by placing this material in water.

After Mineral Lanes.

MIDDLESBORO, Ky., March 16.—A number of New York capitalists, headed by Isaac Untermyer, have been prospecting in the mountains recently, and it is said, a powerful syndicate has been formed and all the timber and mineral lands in Harlan, Perry, Leslie, Knott and Elliot counties will be bought.

Little Brother Saved Her.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., March 16.—Six-year old Maud Walton Thursday afternoon was saved from burning to death by her little brother, who appeared just in time with a bucket of water. Her dress had caught fire from a stove and her body was badly burned on her right side.

SIX MILES DISTANT

Windows in Buildings Were Broken by the Shock.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN FAR WORSE.

Three Thousand Pounds of Nitroglycerin Exploded and but One Man Was Killed. Nearly a Magazine Containing 65,000 Pounds of Dynamite Was Wrecked—Not an Ounce Exploded—Loss, Small.

HOUGHTON, Mich., March 16.—About 3,000 pounds of nitroglycerin exploded at the Hancock chemical works near Dollar bay yesterday. All the buildings of the company were wrecked. It being dinner hour only one man, Dominick Christian, was killed. Several were injured by flying debris, but none seriously. The cause of the explosion is a mystery. Christian's duty was to attend the mixing of acid and glycerine. He was in the nitroglycerin vault when the explosion occurred. Not even a particle of his remains could be found.

Carl Ulrich, who was in the mixing house only a few feet away, miraculously escaped by being wedged between the acid tubes, which were covered by an iron frame. In the packinghouse nearby, were large quantities of dynamite, and in a magazine adjacent was stored 65,000 pounds of dynamite, but not an ounce of it exploded, although the buildings were wrecked.

The property loss is about $5,000. This is the third explosion at these works with a total loss of 10 lives. Windows were broken in buildings at Lake Linden, six miles away, and in Calumet, 10 miles to the north, glassware rattled in the houses and the explosion was distinctly heard. At Houghton, three miles distant, it was scarcely heard.

PREHISTORIC REMAINS.

In a Kentucky Cavern Four Petrified Human Bodies Found.

CINCINNATI, March 16.—In a small rocky cavern on lands owned by Dr. Terrell, 10 miles from Claves, O., in Boone county, Ky., sitting upright in a close little group, have been discovered four petrified human beings of some prehistoric race.

The bodies are small in stature, dark, and in features and general contour much like the mummies taken from the crypts of the pyramids of Egypt. They were partly wrapped in bandages of a material resembling cloth. The folds were even, but perfectly distinct, and when crumbled to dust at a touch disclosed smooth, fleshy marble. One of the most striking observations is that the eyes are wide open, and in color and smoothness are a beautiful brown and white agate.

For years it has been known that an antediluvian burying ground existed on the Terrell farm; and from time to time bodies similar to these have been exhumed. Many of the farmers' wives in this vicinity, ignorant of the historic value of these specimens, have used them to ornament flower beds and garden plots.

Doctors and curiosity hunters from Lawrenceburg, Aurora, Cincinnati and other places have visited the farm and searched its wilds for more of these strange relics. The finding of so many of them seems to sustain the theory that this section of the country at least was inhabited by a peculiar race of people, now extinct, long before the appearance of the red men, who were in possession when the country was traversed by Europeans.

TRUE LOVE REWARDED.

The Bride of a Convict Finally Secures His Pardon.

CHICAGO, March 16.—After the jail wedding of Miss Lulu Keiver and William F. Bagley Jan. 25, the bride promised her husband that she would do all in her power to secure his release before the expiration of his term. Governor Altgeld has now pardoned Bagley and as soon as the formalities can be carried out he will be free to thank his wife for her fidelity to his cause.

Bagley was a Hyde Park jeweler who ran away with watches left to be repaired. He spent a few days in Cincinnati, was arrested there, brought back, indicted, tried and sentenced. At the time of his lapse from the right he was paying court to Miss Keiver. After his fall she refused to renounce him, and they were married in the jail. Since that time the young bride has been working to secure her husband's pardon, and Friday her efforts were awarded.

Claimed to Be the Cook Gang.

GUTHRIE, O. T., March 16.—News of a daring hold-up and robbery comes from Washita. Near dusk the section house and men were robbed by two highwaymen. Section Foreman Woods was hit, the ball entering the right cheek and coming out at the right ear. It is not thought that the wound is dangerous. Mrs. Woods was also beaten over the head with a 6-shooter, receiving wounds which are most likely to prove fatal. The booty obtained consisted of $723.85 in money and railroad checks and three gold watches. The robbers told their frightened victims that they were the remnants of the Cook gang. A posse is after them.

NEW YORK, March 16.—Two thousand striking electrical workers and building workmen went back to work today. They resumed work on John Jacob Astor's mansion at Sixty-fifth street and Fifth avenue, the American Tract society's new building at Spruce and Nassau streets, and on the Wolfe building at William street and Maiden lane. These men are in the employ of Builder John Downey.

REASONABLE.

Action of the Italian Government in the Walsenburg Incident.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The Italian government is acting with extreme moderation and consideration in the matter of the killing of five of its citizens of Walsenburg, notwithstanding the clamor of the Italian press for the introduction of energetic measures. There has been nothing in the nature of a protest lodged with this movement nor a demand for indemnity and reparation.

The only communication received from the Italian government, save the verbal request from the Marquis Imperiali that a proper protection be afforded to the Italians at Walsenburg, came yesterday in the shape of a short and dignified note from Baron Fava, the Italian ambassador, enclosing to Secretary Gresham a copy of the report of Dr. Cuneo, the Italian consul at Denver, stating the facts attending the killing and the names of the victims, all five being, according to the consul, Italian subjects, and not naturalized American citizens. In transmitting this report the Ambassador expresses the hope that the Colorado authorities will take the necessary steps to secure the prompt punishment of the guilty parties.

This note and report will be communicated to the governor of Colorado by the secretary of state, and that is as far as he can go in the matter at present. When congress meets again, however, it is probable that the president will feel constrained to request that an appropriation be made to indemnify the families and relatives of the murdered men for their slaughter.

In the case of the killing of the Italians in New Orleans four years ago, the state department took the ground that an indemnity could not be demanded but nevertheless it felt bound to yield in comity and equity and on these grounds recognize the principle of an indemnity. The unfortunate incident at Walsenburg may seriously embarrass the state department in its efforts to protect American citizens in foreign countries.

Justices Rest.

The supreme court of the United States yesterday took a recess until Monday, the 25th inst., with the exception that it will sit next Monday for the delivery of opinions and to hear motions. Before adjournment the court postponed the hearing in the White Cap cases of J. W. Todd, Allen Lights, George Simms and 10 others, convicted in the northern district of Alabama of intimidating witnesses, etc., and sentenced to imprisonment.

DETAIL OF POLICE

Guards a Priest in Celebrating Mass in a Polish Church.

CHICAGO, March 16.—About 200 angry poles, men and women, stormed St. Hedwig's church, at North Hoyne avenue and Kosciuszko street, at 6:30 a. m. yesterday. Five policemen who were in guard were cowed by the mob, but on the arrival of reinforcements the rioters were driven off.

There has been trouble in St. Hedwig's parish for many weeks. Father Barzinski was driven out three weeks ago, and at that time the police were called upon to protect the church property.

Father Barzinski belonged to the order of Resurrectionist Fathers, and it was to this that the objection was made for some reason.

The police arrested Josie Lowandowski and her son, Anton, who seemed to be ringleaders, and search is being made for the woman's husband.

After the church was cleared the priest celebrated mass under guard of a detail of police.

HORRIBLE DISCOVERY.

Bodies of Three Wolf-Hunters Found, Probably Murdered.

CHIPPWA FALLS, Wis., March 16.—A horrible discovery was made yesterday by a party of men hunting in the neighborhood of Ingram. The dead bodies of Ed Duffney, John Hanson and another man were found in an old lumber shanty. From all appearances they had been dead a number of days, the bodies being frozen stiff. Duffney and Hanson were formerly employed as woodsmen, but quit work to hunt wolves, using poison to kill them. The supposition is that in preparing supper they accidentally got the poison mixed with the food. Their dog was found dead in the same room.

Governor of New South Wales Dead.

SYDNEY, March 16.—The Right Hon. Sir Robert William Duff, G. C. G. M., governor of New South Wales, is dead. Sir Robert William Duff was born in 1835. He was formerly a commander in the royal navy, a justice of the peace and a deputy lieutenant for the counties of Banff and Kincardine, Scotland. From 1861 to 1893 he was a member of parliament for County Banff. He was a lord of the treasury from 1882 to 1885, and was a lord of the admiralty in 1886. He was appointed governor of New South Wales in 1893.

Shocking Double Tragedy.

PORT BYRON, N. Y., March 16.—Mrs. Perry Randall and daughter Mabel, were struck by a West Shore train at Weedsport yesterday and killed. The woman lived an hour with both legs and arms and collarbone broken, while the girl was ground to pieces under the engine.

May Abolish Hanging.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 16.—The amended bill to abolish capital punishment has passed the senate. A canvass of the lower house shows that of the 100 members 37 favor it, 20 oppose it and the remainder are noncommittal. Governor Holcomb is said to favor it.

CARRIED OVERBOARD

All but Two of a Crew of Thirty—One Perish.

STRUCK BY A SUDDEN SQUALL.

Startling Story of Untold Suffering by Only Survivors of the British Ship Yeeman—Sixteen Biscuits and Salt Water Sustained Life in Them For Two Weeks. Desperate Extremes Resorted To.

MARSHFIELD, Or., March 16.—Daniel Clark and Thomas Moore, supposedly the only survivors of a crew of 31 persons from the British ship Yeeman, have arrived here on the schooner Leeds.

The Yeeman sank near Sanle, in latitude 34 north, longitude 45 west. She was bound from Antwerp to Redondo. Clark related the details as follows:

"While shortening Sanle a sudden squall struck us and a heavy swell like a tidal wave struck us, capsizing the ship. As the seas swept the deck I was carried overboard."

A lull followed and the ship righted. I got on the ship again to find no deck. The cook was lying in the galley with his head split open and hardly alive. Captain Ferguson and mate were drowned. As the ship was sinking I abandoned her and cut loose in a lifeboat from the davits, got the cook into it and pulled off. We were 14 days in the boat before the schooner Leeds sighted us and picked us up. During this time we suffered more than language can express. We had to fare all the time on 16 biscuits without a drop of fresh water. We ate two biscuits apiece a day until they were exhausted, and we drank salt water. This made our mouths and throats as raw as a beefsteak. We could not speak our names, and our eyes were swollen shut. We were so hungry that we ate the uppers of our shoes and sucked blood from each other."

Here Mr. Clark exhibited his leg, which showed great red blotches certifying the truthfulness of his story. Continuing, he said: "I have been around the Horn nine times, but this was the roughest trip I ever experienced. We lost four men overboard in a gale off the Horn, and Paul Hessing fell from the topsail yard and was killed."

POLICEMEN REINSTATED.

Supreme Court Overrules the First Results of Lexowism.

NEW YORK, March 16.—The general term of the supreme court has reversed the decision of the board of police commissioners dismissing Captain Amos A. Cross from the police force and restores him thereto. The decision is the same in the case of Cross' wardman, George Smith, who was dismissed the same time and under similar charges. The decision is unanimous.

In granting the new trial to Cross the general term says that it would be impossible to convict any man on the testimony of such witnesses as the women who appeared against him.

Katie Schubert was unworthy of belief in the opinion of the general term. The court was of the opinion that the accused policeman did not have a fair trial on account of the fact that the defendant was not allowed to investigate the identity of the witness.

"The Schubert woman is not worthy of belief," said the court, "because she testified to her own dishonor in a former action."

Captain Cross was in charge of the Fourteenth precinct when he was brought to trial by the police commissioners in July last on charges based upon testimony brought out before the Lexow committee.

This is the first decision in the cases of captains tried on the Lexow evidence, and dismissed by the board. The police commissioners may take an appeal.

New Trial For Erasmus Wiman.

NEW YORK, March 16.—Judgment was reversed and a new trial ordered in the case of the people against Erasmus Wiman. The decision was handed down in the general term of the supreme court at 4 p. m. yesterday. This practically affirms the position taken by Justice Barret in granting a certificate of reasonable doubt that Judge Ingraham erred in refusing to charge the jury as to Wiman's criminal intent when he committed the forgeries for which he was indicted, and of which he was found guilty in the court of oyer and terminer.

"Young Corbett" to Meet Griffo.

LOS ANGELES, March 16.—George Green, who is known all over the country as "Young Corbett," is going to meet Young Griffo, the Australian, before the Coney Island club in New York. Thursday he received a dispatch from W. A. Brady, manager for Champion Corbett, apprising him that a match could be arranged and Green accepted.

First Case Filed.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16.—Attorney McKissock, the special United States attorney general appointed by Attorney General Olney to prosecute the government's claim against the estate of Leland Stanford, filed the government's complaint in the United States circuit court here yesterday. The suit is for $15,237,000.

Church Rioters in Court.

OMAHA, March 16.—All the inhabitants of the Omaha suburb of Shelly were in the police court yesterday, interested in the trial of the church rioters. After some preliminary work court adjourned.

River News.

The Hudson passed down at 9:30 a. m. Vevay from and to Cincinnati this morning.

The Ruth for Portsmouth, Sunshine for Pomeroy and Hudson for Pittsburg due up to-night.

The Alex. Montgomery down this morning with Kanawha coal. The Bob Pritchard up with empties.

Sunshine from Pomeroy down last night. The Ruth from Portsmouth down at 4 p. m. Friday. Bonanza up last night.

The gauge reads 25 6-10 feet and rising. All rivers above rising slowly, so we will have good towboat and packet water for sometime.

Enquirer: "Mr. Thomas Nolan, late of the Sherley, is now in charge of the cabins of the Ruth, and is just as genial towards his host of friends as ever."

The salt trade, on which the Pomeroy bends once had a monopoly, seems to have revived wonderfully, as all the packets are bringing big consignments in both barrels and sacks, and are behind in all their deliveries.

Cheap Excursion to Cincinnati.

Only $1.25 round trip to Cincinnati, on Wednesday, March 27th, via the C. and O., tickets good going on trains 19 and 15, leaving Maysville at 5:30 a. m. and 5:05 p. m.; good returning on regular train No. 20, leaving Cincinnati at 5:30 p. m., Wednesday, March 27, and on trains 16 and 20, leaving Cincinnati at 7:40 a. m. and 5:30 p. m., Thursday, March 28th. Among the many fine attractions offered at the numerous theatres on this date will be the appearance at the "Grand" of handsome Lillian Russell, the queen of comic opera, supported by her excellent company. For further particulars see small bills, or apply to ticket agents.

FAVORS DR. REED'S PLAN.

Editor Bulletin: I see in the EVENING BULLETIN of March 13th that some one thinks Mr. Cochran's plan to secure free turnpikes the best. While possibly he may be right, others think Dr. Reed's the best. Mr. C. said in his report before the mass meeting last Monday that 10 cents on the $100, would be sufficient to accomplish his object. A levy of 10 cents would collect about $9,500 per year; five years on that plan would collect near $50,000. Then if not a success the fifty thousand dollars would go "where the wood-bine twineth."

The best plan is to keep all you get. Now if we adopt Dr. Reed's plan and secure the roads, they will belong to the county, and will benefit a part of the county if not all. When on the other hand it will benefit no one.

PEARS, peaches, plums, apricots, first quality, 15 cents can—Calhoun's.

ANOTHER FAKE.

That Leonard—Vauhn Story From Manchester—A Hot Roast For Lying Correspondents.

[Georgetown News-Democrat.]

The Manchester telegram to the Cincinnati papers relative to the confession of Alfred Leonard—that he had killed one Levi Vaughn for six hundred dollars which he was "drying in the sun"—a mention of which we made last week, was a rank and rotten fake. Vaughn was an inmate of the Adams County infirmary, and, as a lunatic, was sent to the Athens asylum in 1888 where he died shortly after of natural causes.

The telegram is said to be the work of an individual known as "Beeswax" Cross—the same chap who telegraphed the Aleck Griffith fake to the Cleveland Press. Such stuff is not only dollars but doughnuts, as well, to "Beeswax." It may not be generally known, but it is truth just the same, that the city press pays a premium for falsehood. A young fellow may run his legs off gathering facts for these papers and his telegrams are murdered without remorse. Let him concoct a story, no matter how untrue, or how improbable, and it goes in at the top of the column and is paid for without question.

Thus encouraged the correspondent ceases to waste time hunting for facts or to pay any attention to truth and veracity. He begins to cultivate his imagination and at the end of each month sends in his "string" (of lies) and in a few days receives the wages of his sin in the shape of a check bearing the "John Hancock" of the proprietor of the sheet which has seduced him into becoming a disciple of Thomas Pepper.

Money being what the one wants and sensation the desire of the other the umbilical between the two grows and thickens until it resembles a hawser.

THAT WINCHESTER LIAR.

Whoever He Is He Is Given a Hot Roast by the Portsmouth Blade.

[Portsmouth Blade.]

The following paragraph appears in a recent issue of the Winchester Herald: The editor of the Herald has been offered $15 a week to do reportorial work on the Cincinnati Enquirer. The locality to be assigned him, however, was the most dangerous part of Front street, and the offer was refused. He prefers living in Winchester.

Anybody who can lie like that ought to be on the Enquirer or some other forty by sixty sheet, where there is plenty of room. The query is suggested, are the editor of the Herald and the famous "Winchester liar" one and the same person?

Some child of genius has been sending out specials from Winchester that have made that town and Adams County a laughing-stock all over the State. According to the reports sent out, the people of that community do more queer, insane, unaccountable things than a whole commonwealth of idiots. The stuff fills space, and people at a distance marvel muchly at the wonders of "darkest Ohio." It is a mistake to imagine that talent is required for this sort of work. It requires no more brains than it does to pound sand. Any fool on earth can get up such stuff by the yard, if only he can find a paper willing to pay space rates for it.

By the way,—wasn't it $45 per month instead of per week?

For The Farmer

T. L. Best sold four hogsheds of tobacco at Cincinnati this week at $17.25, $13.75, $10.25 and $13.75 per hundred.

A farmer is throwing away his time raising a poor crop of anything. His aim should always be directed to quality and not quantity. A farmer living in the eastern part of Mason raised 8,000 pounds of tobacco last season, but it was of a very inferior quality. He shipped it this week and got $2.60 a hundred. He had paid 60 cents a hundred for stripping it, and after he pays for prizing and shipping and selling, he'll not have enough to pay for the fertilizer used on it.

The Modern Mother.

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy, than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

A. O. H.

All members of the A. O. H. in good standing are requested to meet at their hall to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, as matters of interest will be before the meeting.

W. A. COLE, President.

At the Church of the Nativity to-morrow, services will be: Sunday school at 9:30; Litany, sermon and holy communion at 10:30; evening prayer at 4 p. m. At the evening service the third lecture on the Prayer Book will be given. Services every day in Lent at 4 p. m. except Fridays, when it is at 7:30. Everybody welcome.

A Remarkable History.

Our venerable friend Mr. Charles Phister celebrated his seventy-sixth birthday Friday. Mr. Phister says he is thankful to God for the multiplied mercies he has enjoyed all through life. He was born in Maysville March 15th, 1819. He never was sick a day and never took a dose of medicine in his life that he knows of. He commenced going to Sabbath school when he was six years of age and has never missed a Sunday since then, no matter whether at home or abroad. He has never taken a drink of liquor. He started out in politics, a Clay Whig, cast his first Republican vote in 1856 for Fremont and has been voting that way ever since and expects to remain a Republican as long as his life is spared. In religion, he is a Methodist, having been a member of that church over fifty years. He has always enjoyed good eyesight, has never worn spectacles and says he can still read the finest print. Baseball Gossip.

Blanchard, the pitcher of the Bellevue Browns, signed Thursday with the Lima (Ohio) team. Shortstop Houseman, Catcher Benke and Pitcher Emig, also of the Browns, may go with the same team.

The Enquirer says: "George Nie left Thursday for the New Orleans team in the Southern Baseball League. George is an excellent all-around player, having played in different positions in the Lexington, Maysville and Cincinnati Gymnasium ball clubs. His numerous friends in Ludlow are confident that he will make a favorable showing in New Orleans."

THE following persons were here from a distance to attend the funeral of Constable James Redmond, that took place at nine o'clock this morning: Mr. Mike Redmond, of Covington, Miss Agnes Maloney, of Flemingsburg, Miss Julia Doyle, of Paris, and Mr. and Mrs. John Hanley, of Ruddle Mills, Bourbon County.

RUSS MITCHELL, charged with killing Deputy United States Marshal Jennett at Millersburg last June, was tried this week in the Bourbon Circuit Court and acquitted. His brother, Frank Mitchell, was also charged with being implicated in the affair, but escaped from the officers who arrested him, and left for parts unknown. The killing was the end of a Sunday carousal over a keg of beer, and one of the Mitchells was accused of holding Jennett while the other shot him.

CHURCH OF THE DISCIPLES—The Sunday services will be as follows: Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Preaching at 10:45 a. m. and 7 p. m. Y. P. S. C. E. 6 p. m. Morning subject of sermon, "Is Jesus a Redeemer or a Savior? and Are the Two Words Equivalents?" Night subject, "A Pentecostal Day, or the Interpreters of Four Bibles on the Same Platform." THE HOUR HAS COME

Counters and shelves cleared for action. The first note of the Spring campaign is heard in the bustle of opening boxes of new fabrics—novel prettiness—fresh dainties—as exemplified in the countless pieces of Spring Goods on our counters. Selling starts briskly, with the handsomest patterns already feeling the salesmen's scissors.

The fashionable women had better bestir themselves while the choice, exclusive things are obtainable. Came in yesterday in several lines of newest style. These black crinkled Crepons are a fad in the larger cities and not half enough are imported, but we begin early, so have the fullest and best stock.

Woman-world has decided that nothing makes a natter, more serviceable or becoming gown for early Spring and Summer than Checks, and the designer has surpassed himself, for handsomer color combinations were never woven. Double width; all wool checks. Price, 25c. This is a few among many styles—25c. to $1.00.

The season's sensation. We offer a superb stock for selection. None pass without stopping to admire. Every pattern new, and the choicest money can buy. Priced from 25 cents to $1.00. If you want quality, style and low price in your spring gown, call upon us. Our line is incomparable.

A REVIEW

Of Rev. E. B. Calk's Recent "Half-Hour Talks on the Bible,"

By Rev J. W. McGarvey, of Lexington.
This is the First—Others to Follow.

Editor Bulletin: I have been requested by friends of the Bible in various places, and among others by a dozen members of the Christian Church in Maysville, to review the essays recently published by E. B. Calk in the Public Ledger of Maysville. The request harmonizes with my own sense of duty to the public, and I am thankful for space for them in your columns.

When a man undertakes the literary criticism of the Bible, it is to be presumed that he thinks himself competent to the task. He should be thoroughly familiar with the book, and especially with those parts of it and those facts relating to it which he selects as the subjects of criticism. This familiarity cannot be affirmed of E. B. Calk; for one of the most striking features of these six essays, is the unpardonable ignorance displayed by the writer about the very matters with which he should have been most familiar before daring to write of them as he has done. It will help my readers to a proper appreciation of his efforts, if I first make good this assertion; and this I proceed to do.

1. In his first essay I find this statement:

As the oldest manuscripts of the New Testament are in Greek, and as the first Jewish Christians did not speak Greek, but Aramaic, the first manuscripts are a translation out of a foreign language.

He ought to have known, before speaking on this topic, that the first of all the New Testament manuscripts to be written, were the two epistles to the Thessalonians, which were written in Greece, in the Greek tongue, and to a Greek speaking community. He ought to have known that all of Paul's epistles were written in the same tongue, and to people who spoke it. And he ought to have known, that whatever writings may have been composed by early disciples in Aramaic, all of our New Testament books came from the hands of their authors in Greek.

2. In the second essay, to the question, "When did this people properly begin?" he answers, "With Moses, about 1400 B. C., according to the accepted Biblical chronology." He ought to know that "according to the accepted Biblical chronology," as well as the historic statements of Scripture, this people began with Abraham, who lived several hundred years before Moses was born. The Sunday school children could have told him this.

3. In the same connection we find this statement:

It is of the most far-reaching significance that we remember when Moses led his cohort (a cohort is a body of 1,000 men, M.) of Egyptian refugees to the borders of this poetic land of promise, that Egyptian civilization, with its arts and letters, was 3,000 years old.

The reader is aware that the Egyptians were descendants of Ham, one of the sons of Noah. But here our astute Biblical scholar has them existing, and in the possession of art and letters, 3,000 years before Moses, which takes them back, if we may believe the Bible, two thousand years before the flood, and about that length of time before their ancestor, Ham, was born.

4. In the same paragraph with the preceding, in giving the geographical surroundings of Israel when Moses thus lead them to Canaan, our essayist says:

North of the Syrian or eastern desert was Babylon and Assyria; northwest of Palestine was Phoenicia, the people who held the commercial supremacy of the people of antiquity, and to the westward, across the great sea, was glorious Greece, and all-conquering Rome. [The reader will not overlook the knowledge of English grammar displayed in this and some other extracts.]

Here "glorious Greece," is made to exist in the time of Moses, though the siege of Troy, which was the beginning of its civilization, did not occur till about the time of Solomon, more than 400 years later; and "all-conquering Rome" was out there in the west, although Rome was not founded till about the year 750 B. C., more than 600 years after Moses.

5. In the same essay, after speaking of the composite character of the book of Isaiah, as he has been taught by the rationalistic critics, he adds:

The same composite elements are found in other books, notably the Psalms. The tradition is David was the writer; the truth is he wrote but a part.

This is a false representation of the tradition; for the book of Psalms itself ascribes only seventy-three of the Psalms to David, and it ascribes others to many different writers, such as Moses, Solomon, Asaph, Heman, and the Sons of Korah. The collection has been called the Psalms of David, because David was the principal author, and not because any man who ever read them with their titles, has thought that David wrote all of them.

6. In essay No. 3, I find the following question and answer:

How were the manuscript copies of the Bible made? They were written by hand, the New Testament by Monks in the convents and monasteries; the Old Testament by Jewish scribes.

A critic of the Bible ought to know that Monachism did not come into existence till about the close of the third century, and that therefore the New Testament had been copied for more than two hundred years before there was in existence a monk, a convent, or a monastery. He ought to know too, that monks never did distinguish themselves by copying the Scriptures, or even by studying them.

7. In this connection, and under the next question, our critic attempts to mention some of the passages in our old English version, which have been found to be interpolations; and he includes among them the words, "And I say unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." Matt. xvi. 18. This is as gross a blunder in textual criticism as a man could well make; for not the slightest suspicion has been cast upon the genuineness of this passage by any of the great critics. Look into the margin of your Revised Version, and you will see not a note to indicate a different reading. The last twelve verses of Mark are also set down as undoubtedly spurious, when the worst that can be said about them is that they are held in doubt by many of the critics, and are so marked in the Revised Version.

8. In the same essay (No. 3) appears the following statement:

According to tradition the work of collecting, editing and authorizing the sacred writings of the Jews was done by a certain great synagogue, founded by Ezra and presided over by Nehemiah at Jerusalem about the year 200 B. C. This is wholly a tradition and has been proved to be baseless.

The truth is, that some of the tales told in the Talmud about this great synagogue, have been proved to be baseless, but the critics who are E. B. Calk's teachers are themselves of the opinion that Ezra and others with him did some such work for the Old Testament books as is here described. But the worst blunder of this paragraph is that of dating the career of Nehemiah at "200 B. C.," when he really came to Jerusalem in 444 B. C., and terminated his leave of absence twelve years later in 432. Calk's teachers all tell him this, and they would rap him over the fingers as a dull scholar for thus misstating the figures when deliberately writing an essay on the subject.

9. Similar blunders occur in the fourth essay, but I will mention only one of those that I have marked. It is the statement that Samson is said to have "tied the tails of three thousand foxes together." Well, I don't blame him for not believing this. Three hundred foxes were enough to satisfy Samson, and instead of tying all of their tails together, he tied them two and two. Calk ought to go to Sunday school. I am only about halfway through with his exhibitions of accurate learning in the book which he criticises; so I must close till next week. J. W. MCGARVEY, Lexington, Ky.

THE Kentucky Court of Appeals has decided that Louisville city bonds, issued recently, must be paid in gold. The case is one in which the Sinking Fund Commissioners issued $500,000 of bonds, payable in gold. To test their validity and establish the authority of the Sinking Fund Commissioners to contract to pay in gold, Farson, Leach & Co. et al., purchasers of the bonds, brought suit for a decision of that point.

ON Wednesday evening, March 27th, at the opera house, the following from Cincinnati will appear in an elaborate musical programme: Mr. Jacob Bloom, violinist; Mrs. Jacob Bloom, pianist; Master David Abramowitz, boy violinist, (aged thirteen); Mrs. Hattie Blatterman, vocalist; Miss Mannheim, elocutionist, from the Cincinnati School of Expression. Mr. and Mrs. Bloom are from the Cincinnati Conservatory and Mrs. Blatterman from the College of Music. Master Abramowitz is a wonderful musician for one of his age. The entertainment will no doubt prove a treat for lovers of music.

VANDALIA WRECK.

Several Injured and Large Amount of Express Money Burned.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., March 16.—Vandalia express No. 7 was wrecked two miles east of this city at 12:50 yesterday. A head-end collision with a switch engine caused the accident. Both engines were reared high in air, and the derailed cars caught fire and burned fiercely, as did also a dozen loaded freightcars standing on the siding.

The train was made up of two baggagecars, a smoker, ladies' coach, New York sleeper, an Evansville sleeper, a Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Cincinnati sleeper, which was attached to the train at this point. It also carried a local Indianapolis sleeper. Conductor Rahm, who was in charge, is a new man on the road and was running extra.

Pat Dailey, one of the oldest men on the road, and who was in the wreck at Coatesville a few weeks ago, was the engineer. Conductor Rahm had a wrist sprained and Dailey and his fireman, Hanley, were badly bruised. The express car was destroyed by fire and the baggagecar partly burned.

Loss to the Adams Express Company.

NEW YORK, March 16.—At the office of the Adams Express company it is not known exactly the loss the company will sustain by the burning up of its express car in the wreck at Terre Haute, Ind., yesterday. President L. C. Weir of the company states that while he thinks the loss will reach $100,000, it will probably not exceed that sum.

"All the waybills of the contents of the two safes were destroyed by fire," he said, "and an accurate estimate can not be made until we hear from all the points from which shipments were made. The only concentrated report was with the express messenger and was destroyed. The principal loss, however, will be in coin and bonds, as our line carries a great portion of the banking business between St. Louis and the Atlantic coast."

WORKING UNDER GUARD.

No Change in the Strike Situation on the New Orleans Levee.

NEW ORLEANS, March 16.—In the last 24 hours there has been no change in the labor situation in this city. All day long work has progressed on the wharves, but, as before, it was the negroes, or, at best, "black and tan gangs," half white and half colored, who loaded the ships on which the fighting took place on Tuesday, and they were under the protection of bodies of state troops fully armed and prepared to suppress any outbreak of the riotous element.

Judge Moise of the criminal district court called the grand jury into court yesterday afternoon and charged that body specially to investigate Tuesday's riot. A large number of witnesses, principally white and colored screwmen and policemen, were summoned and their testimony taken in the grand jury room.

A number of men, arrested on the charge of instigating a riot, were arraigned before the recorder and were remanded for trial before the criminal district court or placed under bonds to appear for hearing.

The service of the police and troops were not required at any time during the day, even for so simple a function as the dispersing of little knots of men. All fear that the situation will be further complicated by strikes in other trades out of sympathy with the screwmen has been removed.

PUNISHMENT FOR CONTEMPT.

A Radical Press Law Waiting Gubernatorial Approval.

PHOENIX, A. T., March 16.—The bill curtailing the power of the courts in punishing for contempt is now in the hands of the governor. A committee from the Arizona Press association has waited on the governor, urging its approval. The bill acts to protect the press by disqualifying a judge from trying contempt cases against himself and the giving of a right of a jury trial and appeal. The wide departure of this bill from all laws on this subject and the great interest manifested by lawyers, the courts and the press excites universal interest. The opposition of the bar and the pressure of the press on the governor makes its fate a matter of much concern. The governor is both a lawyer and a journalist.

Commander Lawler's Tour.

ROCKFORD, Ills., March 16.—Commander-in-chief Lawler will introduce Senator James B. Gordon of Georgia, who is to lecture here March 25 and leave the next day for an extended visit to department encampments, including nine southern states. The commander will visit every department encampment held in the United States this year.

Obnoxious to Interstate Law.

CHARLESTON, March 16.—Judge Brantly, in the United States district court, handed down a decision in the libel case of the schooner Caroline, seized and confiscated by the state for violating the dispensary law. The court says so much of the dispensary act as interferes with interstate commerce is obnoxious to the United States constitution and void, and the schooner Caroline, while engaged in such commerce, should not be legally seized.

Church Incendiary Confesses.

BOSTON, March 16.—James A. Doherty, 17 years old, has confessed to Fire Marshal Witcomb that he set fire to St. Peter's Catholic church the evening of March 6. The marshal said he had not finished his investigation and would not make known the details of the investigation until he had.

No Water Protection.

DEVINE, Tex., March 16.—An early morning blaze destroyed 10 buildings comprising the business portion of this town. There was no water protection and the flames swept every house on the west side of the International and Great Northern railway track. Loss estimated at $50,000.

Civil Rights Bill Dead.

PERRY, O. T., March 16.—By refusing to sign it within the required three days, Governor Reafrow has allowed the civil rights bill to meet a legal death. Had the measure become a law, colored men could have obtained damages for being refused admittance to public places where whites are privileged characters or from mixing colors on passenger coaches. Its defeat has resulted in a decided protest being made by the negroes generally and much chagrin to Republican politicians, who fostered the bill.

The English After It.

HALIFAX, March 16.—An English syndicate has cabled an offer of £50,000 for coal areas located between Sydney and Mira, in Cape Breton. English capitalists sent out an expert last summer to examine the property, and he has pronounced it one of the finest coal seams yet discovered. The present owners will retain an interest.

MAY MARRIAGES UNLUCKY.

Old Superstition Which Has Powerful Influence With European Bridal Couples.

The municipal statistics of the city of Marseilles show the observer that on the 28th of April, 1894, there were registered at the mayor's office in that town no less than 94 marriages. Why this enormous number? Because, according to an ancient tradition, couples that marry in the month of May expose themselves to great danger—death will soon smite the unfortunates, or, at the very least, their union will not be blessed with children. Therefore a large number of Marseillaise lovers availed themselves of the last days of April to join themselves in wedlock.

This curious superstition is by no means confined to Marseilles. M. le Blaut, a French investigator, ascribes to it an origin in Roman antiquity. The Roman poet Ovid said that May was no time for widows to marry or for young girls, and adds that the imprudent woman who braves fate by so doing will die early. Plutarch agrees to the truth of this.

It may be because of this ancient principle that the Roman Catholic church has made the month of May sacred to the Virgin. However this may be, the idea has certainly perpetuated itself with singular persistence. Tassoni, writing about the middle of the seventeenth century, relates that among the inhabitants of Ferraras many young nobles and princes who were married in May died only a few days afterward. "It is the observation of this strange fact," he observes, "that induced the Ferrarese, so it is said, to follow the ancient custom."

At the present day the superstition has not ceased to show itself in certain regions of Italy, in Roumania, in south Germany, Bohemia, Westphalia, England and France, notably in Saintonge and in the Cevennes, where every one acknowledges the truth of the proverb, "The month of flowers is a month of tears."

"Perhaps," said Plutarch, "the month of May is regarded as unlucky because it comes between April and June, the months respectively of Venus and Juno, the tutelary goddesses of marriage, or perhaps it is because May is the month of the feast of the Lemures, the souls of the dead."—Paris Letter

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.
